

Sample Rubric for Video Slideshows

Student's name _____

	1 point	2 points	3 points
Visuals
Choice of slides	The choice of slides was inadequate to support the narration.	The choice of slides was adequate to support the narration, but did not enhance it.	The choice of slides effectively supported and enhanced the narration.
Titles and Credits	Less than 50% of titles and credits are accurate and legible.	Most titles and credits are accurate and legible.	All titles and credits are accurate and legible.
Length	The slideshow is more than 30% shorter or longer than the required length.	The slideshow is up to 30% shorter or longer than the required length.	The slideshow meets the length requirement.
Narration
Delivery
Pronunciation	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Intonation	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Fluency	Frequent stops. Sounds as if reading.	Hesitations. At times sounds as if reading	No hesitations. Fluid. Knows speech well.

Content
Logical organization	The order of ideas is difficult to understand. Transition words are missing or inappropriate.	The order of ideas can be followed although there are a few inappropriate or missing transition words.	The order of ideas is smooth, fluid, and easy to understand. Transition words are properly used throughout.
Supporting information appropriateness	The information provided does not support the points the narrator tries to make.	The information provided at times does not support the points the narrator tries to make.	The information provided fully supports the points the narrator tries to make.
Grammatical accuracy	Frequent errors that may affect comprehension.	A few errors that may affect comprehension.	No errors that may affect comprehension.
Vocabulary	Numerous examples of inappropriate or repetitious vocabulary.	Generally appropriate and varied vocabulary with a few oversights.	Appropriate and varied vocabulary.
			Score:        /30